with specialized white Venus marble imported from Greece. The high ceilings, balconies, and full-length windows ensure generous natural lighting and air circulation

Each partially-furnished apartment comes with cabinets, wardrobes, and bath vanities - all tastefully fashioned for an upscale lifestyle. Homes are also graced with elements by leading international brands, such as air conditioners by Daikin, a water heating system by Rheem, taps and faucets by Grohe, and designer bathroom fixtures by Johnson Suisse. there will also be an intercom for your convenience.

The heart of a happy home is in the kitchen, so you'll be glad to know that your new kitchen comes with tailored cabinets, as well as a cooker hood and hob by Bosch. What's more, the faucet is fitted with a special system that acts to purify and ionize the water. It instantly turns tap water into safe, potable alkaline water.

Amenities

Residents of Opal East have the privilege of 24-hour security, as well as covered and outdoor parking. The development also has a range of lifestyle offerings on the works, including a pool, a kiddie pool, cabanas, gardens, spa facilities, a function room, barbecue pits, a kids' playground, and a clubhouse.

Good Neighborhood

Telok Kurau is a well-established residential area at the fringe of the Singaporean metropolis. It's a serene suburb by the East Coast, zoned for landed homes, low-rise buildings, and a handful of condominiums. It boasts of a skyline yet uncluttered by towering structures.

Opal East is surrounded by other notable residential developments like the Seawind, Garden Park Residence, Cristallo, Parc Elegance, St. Patrick's Residences, Moda and Meridian 38. Clearly, there's something about this area that developers find worth investing in.

Just around the block is Telok Kurau Park. It has nice, green spaces, even paved areas for jogging or roller blading, as well as a playground for your kids. It's linked with the Siglap Park Connector, which runs along the Siglap Canal, extending northward to the Bedok Reservoir Park then southward all the way to the East Coast Park. It provides a safe route for you and your children to enjoy the beautiful parks in the area. It's also a perfect place to go jogging, biking or skating – and
